LAYOUT AND ARRANGEMENT OF CONTENT

TITLE PAGE, ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS, TABLE OF CONTENTS

The title of each section and chapter must be in BOLD, centre and single spacing. A thesis is composed of four parts, namely the Preliminaries, the Text, the Reference Materials and the Appendices. Each part is arranged in a numerical sequence of chapters.

PRELIMINARIES

Title Page (Mandatory)

The following must be included:

- Title of the Thesis.
- Full name of the Candidate.
- Name of the Program
- DO NOT number this page.

Acknowledgement (Optional)

- This is a statement of appreciation to supervisors(s), source of scholarship(s), assistance obtained during research etc.
- Number this page with “ii”.
- Limit to one page only

Table of Contents (Mandatory)

- The table of contents comprises the titles of parts, sections or chapters, and their subdivisions.
- The table of contents must match the thesis text and must have Headings (1,2,3,…....), subheadings (1.1, 1.2, 1.3, …..) and sub sub-headings (1.2.1, 1.2.2, ….).
- Further divisions to be indicated by small letters in parenthesis e.g. 1.2.1(a), 1.2.1(a)(i)
- Page number begins with “iii”.

LIST OF TABLES, FIGURES, AND ABBREVIATIONS,ABSTRACT

List of Table, Figure (Mandatory)

- Must match the thesis text.
- Page number begins with “iv”.

List of Abbreviations (Mandatory)

- Page numbered in Roman numeral accordingly.

Abstract (Mandatory)

- An abstract is a summary of the entire thesis and should contain a brief write-up of the problem statement, objective, methodology and summary of the findings in the context of the whole study.
- Length of words must not exceed 400 words with 1.5 spacing.
- The abstract is placed immediately before Chapter 1.
- The abstract page must be numbered in Roman numerals accordingly.
- The abstract page must be in one paragraph.
- The first line of the paragraph must be indented

REFERENCE MATERIALS

References (Mandatory)

- Start on a fresh page.
- The title REFERENCES to be centred in capital letters.
- Single spacing within an entry.
- 1.5 spacing between entries.

Appendices (Optional)

- Start on the fresh page.
- The word APPENDICES should be in the centre in capital letters.
- Referred to in the text.
- Comprises of supplementary illustrative materials, original data, and quotations that are too long for inclusion in the text or lengthy experimental methods.
- Do not number this page.
- Must be listed in the Table of Contents.
- Appendices are labelled with an alphabet. e.g. Appendix A with or without page numbering.

Spacing (Mandatory)

- 1.5 spacing for text.
- Single spacing for text in long tables, table titles, long quotations, notes, footnotes, multiline caption and reference entries.

Symbols

- Please use appropriate software to generate symbols or special characters not found on the computer keyboard. Typed on one side.
- Use Times New Roman (font size 12) or Arial (font size 11) (ONLY)
- For formula, use an equation editor including subscripts and superscripts.

  Please observe proper convention for scientific names.

Pagination

- Place the page number at the bottom centre of a page.
- All pages including those with diagrams, tables, etc. must have a page number.
- Appendices are labelled with an alphabet e.g. Appendix A with or without page numbering

Subdivision

- Text in each chapter may be divided into headings and sub-headings such as 1.1, 1.2, 1.3 and etc., 1.1.1, 1.1.2 etc. and 1.1.1(a), 1.1.2(a)

Tables

- A table must be properly centred within the margins. The task should be numbered in relation to the chapter, e.g. in Chapter 1, tables should be numbered as Table 1.1, Table 1.2 and etc.
- Numbered in this format (Table 1.1, Table 1.2 etc.) with a caption.
- The number must correspond with text.
- Place tables near to related discussion in text.
- Place the heading above the table.
- Single-space all tables.
- Align all of the decimals in any column.
- Tables that are too large to fit the margins may be reduced to a smaller size of the same font style. The table number and title should be in the same font size as the rest of your manuscript. Format all tables consistently throughout, including the appendix tables.
- Tables that are too long or too wide for a single page (vertically or horizontally) may be continued on to the following page. The heading should be e.g. “Table 1-1. Continued” (do not repeat the table title).

Figures

- Figures refer to illustrations, photographs, graphs or anything other than tables and script.
- Line diagrams should be drawn with the aid of a computer or with mechanical aids using black permanent ink or equivalent on white paper.
- Unless necessary, the use of colour in graphs and figures is discouraged.
- Put heading below the figures.
- Put only 1 blank line space between the figure and figure heading.

REFERENCES

The most common citation style is the Harvard style and below are examples of Harvard style presentations according to the informationsource.

Book

Family name, first initial. (Year) Title. City of publication: Publisher. Page number of your quotation Adams, A.D. (1906} Electric transmission of water power. New York: McGraw. P.1

British Standards Institution (1990) BS5605:1990 Recommendations for citing and referencing published material. Milton Keynes: BSI.

Coffin, J M. (1999) Molecular Biology of HIV. In: K.A. Crandell, (ed). The Evolution of HIV, Baltimore: Johns Hopkins Press.Pp.3-4.

Website with no author

Title of a website (Year as appearing on site) [Online]. [Date accessed]. Available from World Wide Web Feminist Collections A Quarterly of Women's Studies Resources (2002) [Online], [Accessed 9th May 2002].Available from World Wide Web: http://www.library.wisc.edu/1ibraries/Womens Studies/fcmain.html

Website with no author

Family name, first initial(s) (Year) Title [Online]. [Date accessed]. Available from World Wide Web Hawking, S. (2000) Profesor Stephen Hawking's website [Online].[Accessed 9th May 2002]. Available from World Wide Web: http://www.hawking.org.uklhome/hindex.html

Thesis

Use the title page of the thesis:
Family name, first initial(s). (Year) Title. Type of qualification, academic institution Gill, M.R. (1997) the relationship between the physical properties of human articular cartilage and tissue biochemistry and ultrastructure. PhD thesis, University of Leeds.

Chapter in an edited book

Use the title page and reverse title page of the book and the chapter heading itself: Family name, first initial. (Year) Chapter title. In: initial Family name of the editor, (eds). Title of book. City of publication: Publisher. Page number of your quotation.

Patent

This information is found on the title page of the patent: Name of the originator. (Year) Title of patent document. Patent code. Patent number Philip Morris INC. (1981) Optical perforating apparatus and system. European patent application 0021165 A1. 1981-01-0

Conference Paper

Family name, first initial(s). (Year) Title of paper. In: Editor(s) of conference proceedings if known.Title of a conference, date of the conference, location of the conference. Place of publication: publisher. Page number(s).

Robertson, J. (1986) The economics of local recovery: In The Other Economics Summit, 17/18April 1986, Tokyo. London: The Other Economics Summit.

Electronic journal article

Use information from the website and the article:
Family name, first initial(s). (Year) Title of article. Journal title. [Online]. Volume (issue number)
[Date accessed], a page number of your quotation. Available from World Wide Web
Royall C.P., B.L. Thiel & A.M. Donald. (2001) Radiation damage of water in environmental scanning electron microscopy. Journal of Microscopy.[Online]. 204(3),[Accessed 9th May 2002], p.185.Avail- able from World Wide Web: http://www.blackwell-synergy.com/

Journal article

Use the title page of the journal volume or issue and the article: Family name, first initial(s). (Year) Title of article. Journal title. Volume (issue number), a page number of your quotation Walker, J
R (1998) Citing serials: online serial publications and citation systems. Serials-Librarian, 33(3/4),p.343-356.